

PRINCIPAL OPENING
2022-2023 SCHOOL YEAR

February 24, 2022

Our Lady of Mercy Catholic School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Our Lady of Mercy Catholic School has a 70-year tradition of devout spiritual formation, academic excellence, and service to the community for the children of Our Lady of Mercy Parish and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Baton Rouge. Our Catholic school of 1000 students seeks a creative and engaging leader who articulates the vision of Catholic excellence and embraces the whole-child educational philosophy for which the school is known. The principal must be a Catholic with strong faith formation enthusiastically interested in the “New Evangelization.” The principal must demonstrate mastery of the principles of child development, emerging curriculum, and instructional models to prepare Catholic young people, beyond the basics, for success in the future as competent, confident, and responsible individuals. The principal must foster the understanding of the collaborative nature and the roles of all parties in the Catholic education of young people, leading a culture of Christ like hospitality welcoming parents, grandparents, and friends. The principal will lead an administrative team of 3 assistant principals, and work alongside an administrative team of 10. The principal must work with key stakeholders, a parent advisory board, and the Pastor to ensure the effectiveness of that collaboration to accomplish the mission of the school to equip each child with “...a Catholic foundation for a life of prayer, knowledge, and service.”

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Practicing Catholic
- Masters Degree, Preference of Degree in Education
